ELIZABETH
HENG
U.S. SENATE

JOIN OUR INTERNSHIP PROGRAM!

The Elizabeth Heng for Senate campaign is looking for capable, and motivated students to join our statewide internship program. This Internship Program is designed to give substantial real-life exposure to campaign politics. Participants will cultivate meaningful skills while forming lasting relationships.

Essential Duties:

- Manage and analyze campaign data
- Conduct voter outreach
- Recruit, train, and manage volunteers
- Generate and distribute grassroots social media content

Qualifications:

- Passionate, hardworking future leaders who are looking to gain experience in a statewide senatorial campaign
- Students or recent graduates majoring in politics, journalism, finance, communications, or other relevant coursework.
- Those who are able to work remotely and can contribute a minimum of 8 hours a week.

The internship is unpaid, however, those who complete the program will receive a strong letter of recommendation from Elizabeth Heng.
