

The California-Mexico Project, the College of Liberal Arts, and the Chicano & Latino Studies Department offer students and faculty:

México

Spring Travel-Study 2016

Travel-Study from March 23 to April 3, 2016 in Mexico City, visit Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM) & study at the CETLALIC Language Institute in Cuernavaca, Morelos.

TO PARTICIPATE YOU MUST BE ENROLLED IN THE COURSE CHLS-490: CALIFORNIA-MEXICO CONTEMPORARY POLICY ISSUES SEMINAR (#10761) Every Friday 7-9:45pm

www.cetlalic.org.mx | www.unam.mx

COURSE FEATURES:

- ✿ Over 45 hours of intensive Spanish and Mexican culture instruction, daily lectures, cultural and archeological field trips & a 1-day "Encuentro Chicano" conference at UNAM in Mexico City;
- ✿ Cost includes evening & weekend field trips, home-stay lodging & meals & cultural activities;
- ✿ CSULB credit for the CHLS-490 course and 3 units of Spanish credit (by petition), if eligible.

CALIFORNIA-MEXICO CONTEMPORARY POLICY ISSUES SEMINAR

Provides students with academic instruction on California-Mexico policy studies and a 12-day full-immersion study abroad experience, toward understanding the Mexican culture and educational system, social movements, Mexico's socioeconomic-political structure and Afro-Mexican heritage; while enhancing language skills through classroom, homestay-living with host families and guided field trips.

COST: $1,895. Includes: Airfare, room & board, local transportation, CETLALIC fees & field trips.

To apply please complete the registration form below or go to:

APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 15, 2016. (I.R.A. FUNDS WILL COVER MOST OF TRAVEL EXPENSES, EXCEPT AIRFARE, INSURANCE, AND PERSONAL EXPENSES.)

www.california-mexicocenter.org/cmp-spring2016

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Prof. Armando Vázquez-Ramos,
California-Mexico Project Coordinator
 E-mail: armando.vazquez-ramos@csulb.edu,
 Home Phone: 562-430-5541 | Cell 562-972-0986

