University Monetary Policy Symposium

Have you ever wondered what it's like to be Chairman of the Federal Reserve or a member of the Federal Open Market Committee?

You are invited to attend a special symposium presented by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco in collaboration with the Departments of Economics at California State University, Long Beach and the University of the Pacific.

- Learn the purpose and function of the Federal Reserve
- Listen to a current forecast presentation by Fed economist
- Understand the Fed's role in setting monetary policy
- Participate in a real-time Federal Open Market Committee simulation.

Please contact Dr. Andrew Ojede for more information or participation inquiries.
