

The Department of English 6th Annual Interdisciplinary Graduate Student Conference

Thursday, April 6, 2017 • 8:00 AM - 7:30 PM

Karl Anatol Center • California State University, Long Beach

EGSA and the Department of English at CSULB welcome

Dr. Vanessa Wilkie

as our keynote speaker.

Dr. Wilkie is the curator of medieval manuscripts and British history at the Huntington Library.

Featuring: "Carving Out a Space for Death: The Rituals and Structures of an Early Modern English Countess"

By Keynote Speaker: Dr. Vanessa Wilkie

at 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Re/Inventions provides a forum in which graduate students and advanced undergraduates from Southern California colleges and universities may share their academic research and initiate discussion among their peers.

CSULB's English
Graduate Student Association (EGSA)
is pleased to announce its 6th annual student conference:
Re/Inventions.
This year we will host speakers exploring the topic Spaces in areas ranging from environmental to digital narratives.

For additional information and a complete schedule please visit: <http://www.cla.csulb.edu/departments/english/reinventions/>

Hosted by the English Graduate Student Association (EGSA) and the English Department at CSU, Long Beach. Supported by ASI.

A catered lunch will be provided immediately following the keynote address.

@csulb.egsa

@csulb.egsa

@egsa_csulb

#ReInventions2017

The Department of English
California State University, Long Beach

English Graduate Student Association