

Geography

Colloquium Series

Fall 2020

Deshonay Dozier (faculty, Geography, CSULB)

“Criminalizing Poverty & Police Reform:
Two Scenes from Downtown Los Angeles’s Skid Row”

This presentation describes how American Indian poor people initiated police reforms and alternative sites of care in response to first wave urban redevelopment in downtown Los Angeles during the 1960s and 1970s.

Wednesday, November 4th, 2020

6:30pm-7:30pm

Please join the presentation via ZOOM

<https://csulb.zoom.us/j/87413421292?pwd=VXFuK2VBMXp6NUo4QVN2RDBKSGZKQT09>

(or, Meeting ID: 874 1342 1292 Passcode: 676167)

Hosted by the Department of Geography, CSULB