

THE GLOBAL STUDIES INSTITUTE

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH

Making 'International' Integral To What It Means To Be Educated

<http://www.cla.csulb.edu/centers/globalstudies/>

presents the third annual

Elena Diana Curris Lecture on Global Issues

In partnership with the The Yadunandan Center for India Studies, Political Science Department, History Department, and International Studies Program

“Why Diplomacy is Too Important to Leave to the Diplomats”

a lecture by recovering ambassador Cameron Munter

Cameron Munter is President and CEO of the EastWest Institute for conflict prevention and Senior Fellow at the Harvard University Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs. He was Ambassador to Pakistan at the time of the Bin Laden raid, Ambassador to Serbia at the time of Kosovo's independence, and U.S. Deputy Chief of Mission in Baghdad at the height of the war in Iraq.

Thursday April 25, 2019

at the University Theater

California State University, Long Beach

7:00pm-8:30pm

Kindly respond to Becky Zeferino by Friday, April 12 at
(562) 985-2246 or Becky.Zeferino@csulb.edu

Elena Curris, a caring person with a creative and adventurous spirit, served California State University, Long Beach, in several advancement and public relations capacities. At the time of her unexpected passing, Elena, a 2009 graduate of Leadership Long Beach, served the University as its Director of Community Projects and Marketing.

In recognition of Elena's global interests, highlighted by her chairing the planning committee for "The President's Forum for International Human Rights" and co-directing the annual Veterans Day Celebration, and in support of the University's International Studies Program, her family has established this memorial endowment to sponsor the annual Elena Diane Curris Lecture on Global Issues