

BeachCandy Swimwear is accepting applications for interns

REMOTE Responsibilities:

Working with staff to prepare press releases, blogs, and marketing with brand ambassadors.

Assisting the Designer with product development of collections and custom suits

Assisting the Brand Director in developing marketing strategies

Creating content to post to social media platforms

Required level of education: Some College

Requirements

- 1-3+ years of journalism and creative writing (personally or professionally)
- Strong interest and eye for fashion, especially as it relates to online media & communities and social platforms
- Extremely detail-oriented and organized
- Proactive approach to problem solving and ability to work and think independently
- Passion for digital marketing
- Strong teamwork orientation; ability to coordinate projects across multiple teams, be agile and thrive within a fast paced environment
- Strong general computer skills and knowledge of Microsoft programs
- Strong write, verbal, and interpersonal communication skills
- Demonstrated experience with and passionate about social media and other platforms
- Working towards degree completion in Marketing or related field
- Ability to drive to events and store locations for media requests (must hold valid driver's license and have own vehicle)

About BeachCandy Swimwear

Interested in the swimwear industry? BeachCandy Swimwear is offers internships to students who would like to assist the Designer and Brand Director. Located in Costa Mesa, BeachCandy is a unique approach fashion offering a RTW or Custom Swimwear Services to our clientele. Interns will work directly with the team on branding, marketing, and product launch press releases projects. No experience in the swimwear industry necessary. Looking for a positive, professional individual with a strong work ethic and entrepreneurial spirit.

To apply: Email resume to Info@Beachcandyswimwear.Com