

SOCIAL MEDIA MARKETING INTERNSHIP

Grand Vision is an arts non-profit located in San Pedro's downtown Arts District. We present live and livestream music concerts at the 150-seat Grand Annex; offer music education programs for youth and adults; and provide marketing, and restoration support for the historic Warner Grand Theatre.

Through the LA County Arts Internship Program, we are seeking an undergraduate student to fill a paid $16/hr, 400 hour SOCIAL MEDIA intern position, full or part-time finishing by March 1, 2023. This is an onsite position with some flexibility to work from home after a probationary period. Applicants must attend school or have a permanent address in Los Angeles County. Students graduating May - December 2022 are eligible.

THE PROJECT

Primary responsibilities will be to expand our social media reach with content-rich posts to promote our organization and our live concerts and events in 2022-23. Secondary work includes concert, event and office support.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Has interests and/or experience in marketing and social media, civic engagement and live music event promotion
- Has a high level of oral and written communication skills
- Has research and synthesis skills. Enjoys telling and writing a good story
- Is comfortable using popular social media platforms, including creating and posting short videos.
- Is fluent with Microsoft Office programs and Google Drive
- Is self-motivated, able to ask questions, and to work independently

Experience with graphic design and video editing programs is a plus.
