

The JAMES ALAN COX FOUNDATION awards its 14th set of scholarships! That is almost $300,000 now granted to more than 150 students since 2007.

We are personally inviting your students to apply for our annual photojournalism awards given to students in honor of Mr. James Alan Cox.

Would you please pass this information on to your students?

We have five (5) undergraduate photojournalism awards, payable to the student's university, in the amount of $2,500 each:

- 4 for video
- 1 for still photography

We also have one (1) photojournalism award for a graduate student, payable to the graduate student's university in the amount of $2,500 for video work.

In addition, one (1) or two (2) $1,500 Honorable Mention scholarships will be awarded to one (1) or two (2) college or graduate students. These awards will be for video or still work. (The number of awards given each year in this category will be at the discretion of the Board of Directors.)

We also have five (5) high-end digital cameras that will be awarded to high school students for still photographs.

The deadline is November 15, 2022. Everything can be done online. Please see this link for the application and for more information.

Jim Cox, a photojournalist for KTVK-3TV in Arizona, was killed in the media helicopter collision over Phoenix 15 years ago. This is our way of honoring him - a very talented man and beloved son, brother, and friend.
