

THE HISTORY GRADUATE STUDENT
ASSOCIATION PRESENTS:

RIOTS, STRIKES, AND CONSPIRACIES

A Conference at California State
University, Long Beach

CSULB USU BALLROOMS

November 15, 2019, 9am

Agenda

9 AM Intro by HGSA President, Conner McCombs

Matthew Brown, "Neighbor Killing Neighbor: Ethnic Violence in Central Asia 1989-1990"

Miguel A. Quirarte, "A Bloody Memory: Tlatelolco (1968) in Mexican Pop Culture"

Alexander Foy, "The dark sky will turn red, red like blood: The Violent Chaos of the 2010 Thailand Protests"

10:00 - 10:10 Break

Karla Beltran, "Representing Violence: Framing and Remembering the Greenwood Massacre of 1921"

Michael Lara, "MLK to Kendrick Lamar: Conspiring Against African American Presidencies"

Conner McCombs, "Dwight Macdonald and the Anarchist Tradition: Contextualizing the Politics Circle's Post Modern Politic of Limits Within 1940s Trans-Atlantic 'Neo' Anarchism, 1939-1950"

11:00-11:45 Key Note Speaker: Dr. Cindi Alvitre

12-1:15 Break for Lunch

1:15 Conference Restart

Milan Zivkovic, "Weaponizing Memory: How Muzej Sarajeva Depicted Franz Ferdinand's Assassination"

Bradley Smith, "Brewing Conspiracies: Perceived Conspiracies in English Coffee-Houses under King Charles II"