

MOOT COURT

POSC 417

(Remote)

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP

POSC 418

Why take POSC 417?

- Participate in something fun, rewarding, and challenging.
- Gain great law school and legal career experience.
- Develop effective communication.
- Improve logical and critical thinking skills.
- Learn valuable research skills.
- Meet and network with important people in the legal, academic, and political community.

Why take POSC 418?

- Gain "hands on" experience in California judiciary with a theoretical understanding of the judicial process.
- Attend brown bag sessions with guest speakers and interview lawyers, judges, and other court personnel.
- Discover what area of the law interests you.
- Enter law school or legal career with practical courtroom experience.
- Gain self-confidence and increase comfort level with prominent people.
- Meet and network with important people in the legal community.

There will be a Zoom information session for students interested in Moot Court or the Judicial Internship for fall 2021

Friday, February 19
1:00-2:00pm
via Zoom

Please email Dr. Ringel for Zoom details. If you cannot attend, but are still interested in Moot Court or the Judicial Internship, please email Dr. Ringel at LewisRingel@verizon.net.

Both classes are by permission only. Applications are due by March 19, 2021. Applications are available on Moot Court's website at: www.csulb.edu/colleges/cla/departments/polisci/moot-court/ and the Judicial Internship website at: <http://www.cla.csulb.edu/departments/polisci/judicial-internshipapprenticeship/>