

Lewis S. Ringel was born in New York and raised in New Jersey. He attended Trenton State College (now the College of New Jersey) and earned his Ph.D from the University of Maryland at College Park. He has been the Moot Court Director at CSULB since 2006. Professor Ringel serves on the Executive Board of the American Collegiate Moot Association (AMCA). In that capacity he chairs the Case Committee and the Alumni Case Development Committee. He also serves on the Rules, Judge Recruitment, and the Executive Committees. From 2006 to 2014 Professor Ringel was the Director of the Western Regional Moot Court Tournament. Professor Ringel founded and has hosted the California Classic Moot Court Tournament and has hosted several fall invitationals and classics. Before coming to CSULB, Professor Ringel ran moot court simulations at the United States Naval Academy and Louisiana State University. To date, Professor Ringel's teams have won fifteen regional titles for oral advocacy (most among active coaches) and have advanced to seven national quarter-finals -- reaching the semi-finals three times, and the national finals twice (also most among active coaches). In 2021-22, CSULB won the AMCA national championship for oral advocacy. In addition, his teams have won two national championships for written brief and been the runners-up for national written brief twice. Professor Ringel is the Winner of the 2018-19 John and Phyllis Jung Faculty Award. Professor Ringel is married with two children and has two dogs.
