

John A. Hugie is a Tennessee licensed attorney who practices in Juvenile Dependency & Neglect and Juvenile and Adult Criminal Defense. John earned his undergraduate degree from Weber State University in Ogden, Utah, and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Notre Dame Law School in Indiana. He competed in undergraduate Moot Court with the American Moot Court Association and was a national semi-finalist and top orator. For Notre Dame Law, John competed in both moot court and mock trial competitions, and was a multi-year member of the senior trial advocacy team. He also was a student advocate at the Notre Dame Legal Aid Clinic and a research assistant in New York State legal history.

John has served as a Guardian ad Litem for Juveniles in the Foster System as well as being a member of the Foster Care Review Board. He has been an assistant coach with CSULB since 2020.

John's favorite cases include those that involve Free Speech, Religious Liberty, and First Amendment issues.