

Spanish Graduate Student Association in affiliation with the Department of Romance, German, Russian Languages and Literatures hosts the First Annual Spanish Graduate Student Symposium

SEX AND SEXUALITY IN HISPANIC LITERATURE AND FILM

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Dr. José Cartagena-Calderón
Pomona College

Symposium Participants:

Santiago Aguilar,
California State University, Long Beach.

Itzel Olivares,
University of California, Irvine.

Susana Beatriz Carlino,
Florida Atlantic University.

Ana Palomar,
University of California, Irvine.

Leslie Dávila,
California State University, Long Beach.

Leopoldo Peña,
California State University, Long Beach.

Emily Frankel,
California State University, Long Beach.

Eilene Powell,
University of California, Los Angeles.

Fátima García,
California State University, Long Beach.

Ruth Rubio Rodríguez,
University of California, Merced.

Dalia Gómez,
California State University, Long Beach.

Ryan Castillo,
California State University, Long Beach.

Beth Hernández Jason,
University of California, Merced.

Ana R. Torres,
Concordia University, Montreal, Canada.

Wendy Kurtz,
University of California, Los Angeles.

Ana Zaragoza,
California State University, Long Beach.

Álvaro Luna,
California State University, Long Beach.

California State University, Long Beach.

Friday, March 16, 2012.

8:00 AM - 6:00 PM | Anatol Center

This event is brought to you by:

Office of the Provost  RGRLL  SGSA

SGSA Committee Members:

Santiago Aguilar, Leslie Dávila, Emily Frankel, Gina Freyre, Dalia Gómez and Katya Rodríguez.

Questions? Contact:

Faculty Advisor: Dr. Bonnie Gasior, Bonnie.Gasior@csulb.edu

SGSA President: Dalia Gómez, SGSA@csulbclasc.org