

The Challenges of Teaching Heritage Speakers of Spanish in Southern California Part II: Designing Placement and Evaluation Tools for the 100-300 Language Sequence at Community Colleges and Four-Year Institutions

Date: February 12, 2011

Time: 8:30am - 2:00pm

Location: CSULB-Academic
Services Building
AS 384-385

Registration: $30.00 for non-CSULB and non-Rio Hondo faculty and t.a.'s. Capacity is limited.
Reservations requested.

Rio Hondo College and California State University Long Beach

Teaching Workshop by Dr. Kim Potowski,
University of Illinois at Chicago

This interactive workshop is designed for instructors and faculty who teach in Spanish Programs at community colleges and four year institutions. Topics include:

- Heritage Speakers vs. Language 2 Learners
- Designing a Placement Test and other Evaluation Tools
- Administering the test
- Redesigning and adapting classes
- Administrative issues

Contacts: ngoswitz@riohondo.edu y/o LLlerena@riohondo.edu

Sponsors: Education Office of the Spanish Consulate of Los Angeles; Rio Hondo College, California State University, Long Beach, Department of RGRLL; and the RGRLL-CLA Alumni & Friends Network at CSULB

