

THE CSULB GERMAN CLUB PRESENTS BRIDGE MARKLAND

ROBBERS IN THE BOX CSULB UNIVERSITY THEATER 2.11.2014 | 7:00-9:00 PM

Using puppetry and lip-syncing, Berlin performer Bridge Markland transforms Schiller's classic Sturm und Drang tragedy into a fast-paced, one-woman show. Rebellion, envy, tragic love, stubbornness, hero-worship, and desperation are all themes of the play. Markland underscores Schiller's dramatic words with clips from 157 songs ranging from Wagner's "Ride of the Valkyries" to Lady Gaga's "Pokerface," from Ennio Morricone's hit "Once Upon a Time in the West" to the theme from "Dallas."

One Night ONLY!

The most thorough way to dust down this 231 year old piece is with this pop version

–Berliner Morgenpost

She plays the movies, TV-soap, musical and big opera

–Kieler Nachrichten

Pop can transform the classics

– zitty Berlin

UNIVERSITY THEATER
Admission: Free

www.bridge-markland.de

For more information,
please contact:
William Peightal

William.Peightal@csulb.edu