

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
LONG BEACH

CSULB Russian Club

Spring 2014

Russian Film Series

Th March 6, 2014 at 7P.M. in AS 384

Happy People / A Year in the Taiga

dir. Dmitry Vasyukov, Werner Herzog, 2010, 90 min.

A documentary on the indigenous people living in the heart of the Siberian Taiga; some 300 villagers whose daily routines have barely changed over the last century and live according to their own values and cultural traditions. Werner HERZOG was so impressed that prepared the film's international version and narrated it.

Presented by Dr. Harold Schefski

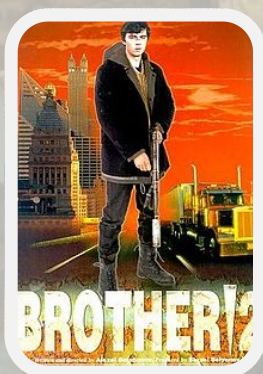

Th March 20, 2014 at 7P.M. in AS 384

Chekhov and Maria

dir. Eric Till 2007, 76 min.

Russian giant, playwright Anton Chekhov, tries to complete his masterpiece play "The Cherry Orchard"... He is helped by his sister Maria with whom he lives in Yalta, CRIMEA(!)

Presented by Dr. Harold Schefski

Th April 17, 2014 at 7P.M. in AS 384

Brother 2

dir. Alexey Balabanov, 2000, 122 min

Post-Soviet answer to James Bond and other "anti-Soviet cinema" — action-packed ideological thriller, 'Russian-made gangster flick' set in Chicago.

Presented by Dr. Andrew Jenks

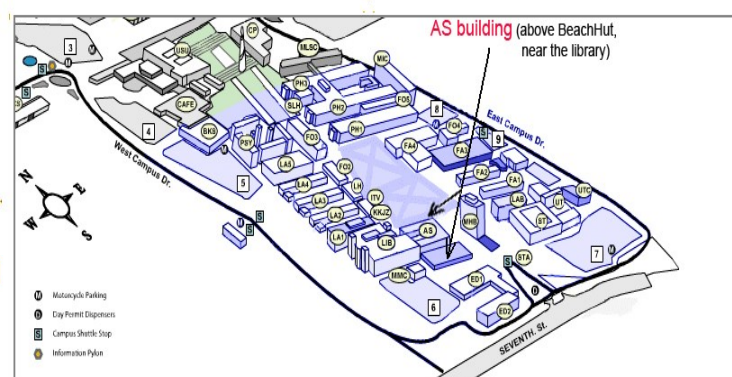

LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Info:

Russian Club President Kendall Veith:

csulbrussian@gmail.com

Parking: daf.csulb.edu/offices/ppfm/parking/guest-event-parking.html

THE CALIFORNIA RUSSIAN FOUNDATION