Russian Minor

Romance, German, Russian Languages & Literatures Department

<http://www.cla.csulb.edu/departments/rgrll/russian/>

There has never been a better time to study the Russian Language than in this exciting era of “The Third Revolution”. For the first time ever it is now conceivable to think about spending time in the homes of ordinary Russian citizens or to invite Russians to visit the United States. As the relations between the United States and Russia continue to evolve, students should no longer think of Russian Studies solely as a defensive tool i.e., for employment with the Agencies – CIA, NSA, etc. but they also ought to regard such preparation as a potential instrument for promoting world peace through commerce (e.g., joint ventures) and communication (e.g., Peace Corps and teaching English in Russia).

Minor in Russian

The purpose of the Minor in Russian is to provide interested students with a focused program of studies in the Russian language.

Requirements:

Prerequisites: RUSS 100, RUSS 200

Nine additional units must be taken in upper division course work: RUSS 310, 410, 428, 499; HIST 341A, 341B, GEOG 318

Scholarships:

Students studying the Russian language may apply for the Russian Program Scholarship for language study in the Russian Federation.

Russian Program - $6,000

(Up to 3 scholarships granted at $2,000)
