

The Helena María Viramontes Lecture in Latina/o/x Literature

Carribeana Fragoza

The Seventh Annual Helena María Viramontes Lecture in Latina/o/x Literature welcomes writer, artist, and journalist Carribeana Fragoza to CSU Long Beach. She is the author of the recent short story collection Eat the Mouth That Feeds You (City Lights, 2021) and co-editor of the critical collection of essays East of East: The Making of Greater El Monte (City Lights, 2020). Fragoza is the Prose Editor of Huizache magazine. She co-edits UC Press' acclaimed California Cultural Magazine, Boom California, and is the founder of the South El Monte Arts Posse, an interdisciplinary arts collective. Her fiction and non-fiction have appeared in numerous publications, including Alta, BOMB, Huizache, the Los Angeles Review of Books, LA Weekly, and KCET. For more information, please visit her website at www.carribeanafragoza.com

SAVE THE DATE

MARCH 16, 2023

California State University, Long Beach
1250 Bellflower Blvd, Long Beach CA 90840

Reading: 4:00 - 6:00pm

Reception: 6:30 - 8:00pm

All events are free and open to the public.

